An advantageous offer! This lovely house is located in a fine and village, only 20 km away from the town of Lovech and 130 km from our beautiful and well developed capital city – Sofia. The property is situated in a semi-mountain and you will be pleased with the magnificent views and natural riches of the region. You can take long walks in the wide fields of the area. It is suitable for fishing and hunting. An asphalt road is leading to the property and makes it approachable even in wintertime. It is a two-storey house with excellent view. 1st floor – 2 rooms, brick walls 2nd floor – 2 rooms, wooden floors and brick walls There is electricity in the house and running water outside the house. There is a garden and it is 500 sq. m. and there are some fruit trees there. The house needs repairing and we and our professional builders will gladly help according to your preferences at a reasonable price. We recommend purchase of this property because of the great location of the house and it is really worthy of its price. Don't miss this great offer!
